Abbot Walter A. Coggin, O.S.B.

But the Abbot,
since he is believed to represent Christ,
shall be called Lord and Abbot,

For he is believed to hold the place of Christ in the monastery, being called by a name of His,
which is taken from the words of the Apostle:
'You have received a Spirit of adoption as sons,
by virtue of which we cry, Abba-Father!'

In all things, therefore let all follow the Rule as guide, and let no one be so rash as to deviate from it.

Francis J.Murray

What is he reading? Toynbee? Maitland? Biggs?

Where did he come from?

No! He can't read. As we were treating in last class, he was pre-literary. These books are for us!

From them we study this man's political, social, economic, and religious development. From the tribe, the city, the state, the empire, the nation; from polygamy, polyandry, monogamy, to just plain Liz Taylor and Richard Burton; we seek to know what makes him tick and having done so, we can speculate as to whether this ticking like the ticking of a bomb, is awarningofhiseventualexplosi . . . In his pursuit of knowledge in the field of literature, the Abbey student examines the works of the ages—Homer, Vergil, Chaucer, Shakespeare, Milton, Tennyson, Twain, Hemingway, Lenny Bruce. . .

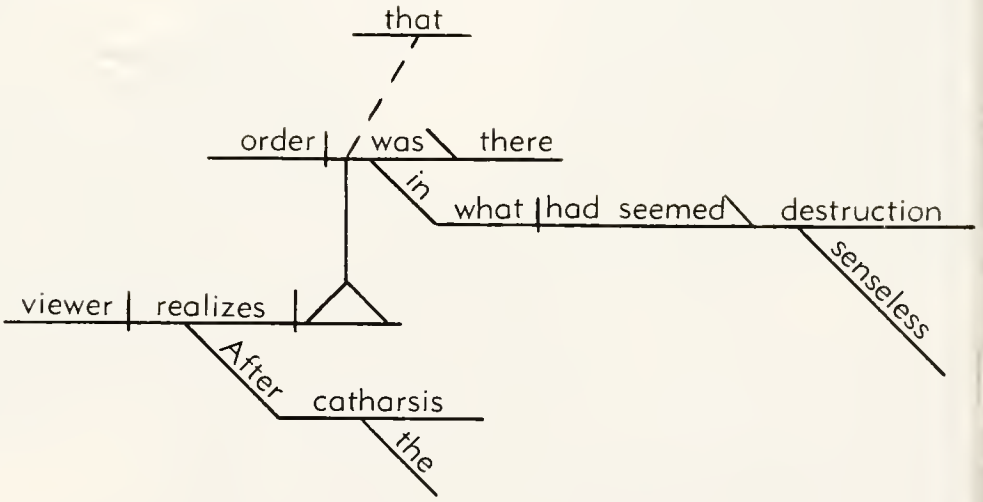
But the outstanding genre of literature is, of course,

OH! OH! TRAGEDY.

Tragedy appeals to the more noble aspects of man's nature (thirst for blood, morbid fascination with death, etc.) Yet true tragedy contains the redeeming quality of the catharsis — the purging of the viewers pity and fear.



And the fact that tragedy exposes universal flaws gives the viewer a ready excuse for his own actions. One can reason, for instance, that since Othello killed his wife because of the universal flaw of jealousy, and I ain't no different from nobody else, I can kill my wife, too, and everyone will understand.

Keynes: "We take as given the existing skill and quantity of available labour, the existing quality of available equipment, the existing technique, the degree of competition, the tastes and habits of the consumer, the disutility of different intensities of labour and of activities of supervision and organization, as well as the social structure including the forces...

ADMINISTRATION

The Abbey ship of state is sailing rapidly along this year. It is streamlined and free of excess weight with each part operating at maximum efficiency for the good of the whole. It has smoothly navigated the Scylla and Charybdis of increased physical facilities and increased student body.

The ship also underwent some minor repairs at the Gulf of Cuts and encountered some turbulence at the Coliseum Straits which forced it to jettison some cargo, but it is rapidly approaching the Sea of Vacation and Rest after a very successful voyage.

At the helm is Father John.

For I know that in me
(that is, in my flesh)
dwelleth no good thing:
for to will
is present with me;
but how to perform that which is good I find not.

For the good that I would
I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

Now if I do that I would not, it is no
more I that do it,
but sin that dwelleth in me.

I find then a law, that,
when I would do good,
evil is present with me.

O wretched man that I am!
Who shall deliver me
from the body of this death?

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

In recent years our athletic program has enjoyed rapid growth. In the last three years the intramurals program has blossomed into one of the main features of Abbey life. The building of the new track raises hopes that we will some day be represented in track and field competition. These years have established a soccer team which is now equal to our usually powerful basketball team.

Finally, there is the baseball team which promises this spring to be a winning ball club.

THE POEM

Much poetry is difficult to understand. However, this is not the case here. Any Abbeyman will be able to plumet the depths of thought and translate the nebulous phrases which abound in verses of fellow students. All one has to do is run to the dorm and ask the author.

THE SHORT STORY

The main criteria of the short story is that it be short. Many people wonder how long the short story should be as compared with a longer story. A fourth? One half? Well don't worry, the Agora has many different sizes.

THE ESSAY

The essay enables the writer to express his views without resorting to the complexities of the poem or the short story. Serious and controversial matters are discussed: "The North is better than the South" and "Does smoking cause leprosy?"

Electricity is the biggest bargain in your budget!

While ways to use electricity go up, costs go down! There are now 162 residential uses of electricity to improve your standard of living, and they cost less now to operate. Actually the average cost per unit of residential electricity has gone down more than one third in the past ten years. Check for yourself: Divide your next bill by the number of uses in and around your home. Then you'll see why Reddy's wage is the biggest bargain in your family budget.
